- verbal information on the most important developments of the governance areas of the MC members. It is not possible to make decisions under this item.

13. ARRANGEMENTS FOR AND AGENDAS OF MC MEETINGS

13.1. Proposed issues, rolling meeting schedule

Proposals for issues requiring decision as well as informatives shall be sent by the MC contact person to the Secretariat with the approval of the manager (CEO or Chief Officer) responsible for the issue according to the Rules of Procedure.

The written proposals for issues to be discussed shall contain the following information:

- Precise identification of the subject (or the number of the MC Resolution if it was already on the agenda of an MC Meeting at an earlier date),
- The suggested date of discussion/decision,
- The names of invitees,
- The responsible submitter's name,
- The list of organizations to be involved in the alignment,
- Whether the material requires decision or it is an informative,
- Time demanded for discussion.

Based on the proposals the Secretariat presents the rolling meeting schedule at the first meeting of each month or upon request.

13.2. Approval of agendas

Within the framework of the last agenda item, the MC approves the agenda of its next meeting. When preparing agendas, the Secretariat shall consider urgent issues arising after the approval of the rolling meeting schedule. In addition to these approved agendas, a new item may be put on the agenda only if the Chairman of the MC has approved it, in exceptional cases.

13.3. Provision of agendas to the Group Compliance Officer

Following a meeting of the MC, the Secretariat shall forward the approved agenda of the next meeting to the Group Compliance Officer.

The Group Compliance Officer shall evaluate whether the items in the agenda may have compliance implications, and, where appropriate, indicate to the Head of the Secretariat its request to be included in the discussion regarding those agenda items.

14. ALIGNMENT OF SUBMISSIONS

14.1. Submission requiring decision

It is obligatory to send these submissions by electronic means for alignment to the Group Legal Directorate and the Controlling Directorate as well as to the affected organizations at the latest by 2:00 p.m. on the seventh working day prior to the date of the respective meeting.

At the commencement of the alignment the responsible submitter shall, by electronic means, provide the submission to the Secretariat.

At least three working days shall be ensured for the purpose of the alignment. The respective organizations have to establish their standpoint within this timeframe. Whenever it is possible the requested modifications have to be incorporated into the material. In the event that there are conflicting standpoints that cannot be resolved the material has to be attached to the submission separately and, if applicable, the above fact has to be mentioned in the executive summary.

The Secretariat must receive the approved material, together with possible conflicting standpoints, at the latest by 10:00 a.m. on the third working day prior to the date of the MC meeting. Materials submitted after the deadline shall not be discussed by the MC unless the Chairman grants permission thereto.

The Secretariat shall publish the submissions requiring decision in the MCTool at the latest by 18.00 p.m. on the third working day prior to the date of the MC meeting.

14.2. Informative material

There is no need for prior alignment.

The material approved by the responsible submitters has to be sent to the Secretariat at the latest by 10:00 a.m. on the third working day prior to the date of the MC meeting and the Secretariat distributes the submission among the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Officers. Materials submitted after the deadline shall not be discussed by the MC unless the Chairman grants permission thereto.

The affected organizations may present their opinion or contrary opinion at the meeting.

The Secretariat shall publish the informative materials in the MCTool at the latest by 18.00 p.m. on the third working day prior to the date of the MC meeting.

14.3. Sharing general information

There is no need for prior alignment and specification of the subject.

15. „PRE-VOTING“ OF THE SUBMISSIONS IN THE MCTOOL SYSTEM

To enhance the efficient time management of the MC, the decision items submitted to the MC can be approved, and the information items can be acknowledged by using the "pre-voting" function of the MCTool.

MC members do "pre-voting" on the submissions available in the MCTool from the publication of the submissions until 12:00 p.m. the day prior to the MC meeting.

In case all the MC members agree unanimously with the given submission and resolution proposal, the submission and the resolution proposal becomes approved or acknowledged.

If, during the "pre-voting", any of the MC members regarding any agenda items requests - with reasoning -, the submission to be discussed at the meeting then the given agenda item shall be discussed at the meeting.

If any of the MC members (but simultaneously maximum 3 MC members) notifies the Secretariat in advance that he/she cannot participate in the "pre-voting" (e.g. due to business engagement or other reason for absence), unanimous votes of all the MC members, without such absentees, is needed.

The result of the "pre-voting" is recorded at the MC meeting and the submissions approved or acknowledged during the "pre-voting" shall not be discussed and/or presented on the MC meeting.
